

How It Works

1. Light enters the spectrometer through fiber optic cable
2. Light is collimated through the collimating lens
3. Collimated light is dispersed with the grating
4. Dispersed light travels to the focusing lens
5. Light is focused down into the detector

